

Citing Sources and Creative Works

Isaac Abella

Date / Time	Student Score	Passing Score	Result
February 11, 2023 2:33 pm	100	100	Pass

Citing Sources and Creative Works

#	Question	Correct Answer	Student Answer	Result	Points Awarded
1	Citing your work ensures that:	others can trace your work back to the source	others can trace your work back to the source	Correct	1
2	Citing your sources can help your instructor:	by measuring how much you have considered and synthesized other works	by measuring how much you have considered and synthesized other works	Correct	1
3	Plagiarism includes:	collaborating on a graded assignment without the instructor's approval	collaborating on a graded assignment without the instructor's approval	Correct	1
4	Which of the following styles uses a page titled Works Cited to list all the works you have referenced in your paper?	MLA	MLA	Correct	1
5	Proper attribution involves two steps: ____ and ____.	creating a bibliography of all the sources you used AND identifying sources where you use them in your paper	creating a bibliography of all the sources you used AND identifying sources where you use them in your paper	Correct	1
6	Rewriting another person's statement and putting it into your own words does not require any sort of citation.	False	False	Correct	1
7	Using a quote from Dante's Inferno (written 1320) without providing proper citation would result in:	plagiarism, but not copyright violation.	plagiarism, but not copyright violation.	Correct	1
8	You decide to include a popular song that was just released as background music for a multimedia presentation in class. Which of the following statements is true based on the scenario?	Your presentation would most likely be flagged as a	Your presentation would most likely be flagged as a	Correct	1

		copyright violation if you uploaded it to a video sharing platform, such as YouTube.	copyright violation if you uploaded it to a video sharing platform, such as YouTube.
9	Citation management software (such as Mendeley, Zotero, and EndNote) are accessible via the University Libraries website.	True	True	Correct	1